Read this next: The Secret DJ: The DJ should be one part of the party, not the focu. But a more interesting question is whether DJs are more vital to a night out than the people who have paid for the DJ to be there. Then we have to wonder: are people now merely paying to see a minor celebrity pretend to perform, or are they there to listen and dance to an authentic set of skills? Requests can ...

Secret DJ also appears to be a musician and music producer of some note. This area of his life is only mentioned in passing but leaves a lot of intrigue. I'm hoping that 'Secret Producer' will be his next book... The stories of Ibiza, New York, Festivals and more are often delivered with a wry wit to us - the 'Pilgrims'.

The Secret DJ surveys four decades in the biz . As 2020 gets underway, two things come to mind. Firstly, the way Antoine de Caunes, French co-presenter of late-night early-90s TV show Eurotrash, used to deliberately pronounce the word ‘decade’ as ‘dickhead’; and how silly the idea of decades is anyway. I’ve been a DJ for four dickheads now, even if 2000–2010 doesn’t feel like one.
